

Division: School of Economics and Management

Academic programme: 09.03.02 Information Systems and Technologies, Information Systems and Technologies in Business

Mode of study: full-time

Programme length: 4 years

Programme level: Bachelor's degree

Language of instruction: Russian

Programme description: The unique programme in the field of information processes, technologies, systems and networks, their instrumental (software, technical, organizational) support, means and methods of design, debug, production and operation of information technologies and systems.

Graduates work in Russian, international and foreign companies involved in the design, development, implementation and operation of information systems

Main programme-specific classes:

- Business Modelling
- Information Systems Modelling
- Object-oriented Programming
- Subject-oriented Programming Languages
- Structures and Algorithms of Data Processing
- Data Management
- Intelligent Systems and Technologies
- Corporate Information Systems
- Market of Information Products and Services

Programme manager: Olga S. Buslaeva, Candidate of Sciences (Engineering), Associate Professor of the Department of Digital Economics and Information Technologies

